

Elector: Joe Gray (Secretary)

Joe is the Statistics and Research Director for Team GB and the statistical historian for British baseball's top level, which are both roles that he carries out under the umbrella of Project COBB (the Project for the Chronicling of British Baseball). This is a research collaboration that he founded and it has since been granted Chartered Community status by the Society for American Baseball Research (SABR). Joe served as Chair of the British Baseball Hall of Fame for its first 10 years. His first book, What about the Villa?: Forgotten figures from Britain's pro baseball league of 1890, was published in 2010. He edited a follow-up book, titled Nine Aces and a Joker: Defining seasons from British baseball's standout pitchers. In addition, he has had research featured in the Baseball Research Journal. Finally, he is a contributor to SABR's Biography Project and a book reviewer for NINE: a Journal of Baseball History and Culture.
