

Electors: Anthony Taylor

Tony is the premier collector of old British baseball memorabilia, especially programmes from the game's "golden era" of the 1930s. He digitizes these for the Project COBB web archive. He also follows British baseball today via attendance at the games of his local Southampton Mustangs. In addition, Tony is a keen student of Major League Baseball history.