

Elector: Kevin Macadam

Kevin joined the panel of electors in 2018 having been involved in British Baseball for 28 years. After starting out as a player, Kevin went on to perform numerous club and national roles, including being the tournament director for the 1996 European B-Pool Championships and the 1997 European Junior Championships in Hull. He held various positions at the British Baseball Federation including Secretary, President and Treasurer and was part of first establishing the BBF head office and then the formation of BaseballSoftballUK during the 1990s.