1996 AWARDS

Once again our annual clinics were bigger and better than before. A full weekend of coaching, umpiring and scoring and the annual awards made for a great event. If you weren't there you missed out big time. The raffle and auction combined raised a grant total of £790, which is far more than we ever hoped for. Thanks to everyone who contributed towards making this such a success.

At the annual dinner it was once again time to honour those people who had outstanding success and achievements during the past season. Awards were given as follows:

Majestic Sportsmanship Award - Kitsons

Trophies

Cambridge Monarchs, for their invaluable assistance with the Premier Division and Youth Finals.

Presidents Award - Kevin & Wendy Macadam - for their work in hosting the 1996 European Senior Championships.

Brian Holland Scorers Trophy - Liz Graham - for her work as the Scottish Scorers Commissioner and dedication during the European Championships.

Norman Houghton Umpires Trophy - Brian Lakin - despite illness during the 1996 season, Brian did not let this stop him getting back to umpiring as soon as possible, showing a true dedication to the sport.

Gridiron Sports Batting Award - Margaret Borley. Margaret has been tireless in her work for the development of junior baseball. She is a committed and hard working Pitch Hit & Run Coordinator, as well as an enthusiastic coach with the Tonbridge Bobcats. I am sure that 1997 will see her developing baseball even more in Kent, adding more schools, and coaching the Bobcats to more success.

Sonny Goings Pitching Award - Peter Arthur, Leeds Owls

Wembley Trophies Golden Glove Award - Darrin Ward, London Warriors

COACHING AWARDS 1996

Junior Development Award - Paul Vernon. Paul worked tirelessly during the year to develop one of the best junior programmes in the country. He has developed a major Pitch Hit & Run programme in the Bracknell area, and in 1997 intends to expand this to neighbouring areas. Paul hosted several tournaments in 1997, and also volunteered to become Southern Conference Youth Commissioner. This award is certainly deserved, and I am sure we will be seeing more of Paul in youth development over the next few years.

Coach of the Year - Jay Stichberry. Jay the Coach of Menwith Hill took over the role from Matt Arrildt midway through the 1996 season. A difficult task for Jay, as Matt coached the Pirates to the National Championship in 1995. However Jay kept the team on line, and impressively repeated as Champions in 1996.

Coaching Achievement Award -

Margaret Borley. Margaret has been tireless in her work for the development of junior baseball. She is a committed and hard working Pitch Hit & Run Coordinator, as well as an enthusiastic coach with the Tonbridge Bobcats. I am sure that 1997 will see her developing baseball even more in Kent, adding more schools, and coaching the Bobcats to more success.

Junior Coach of the Year - Jim Outlaw - Junior Coach of the Year. Jim had an impressive season in 1996, taking the Dundee Dragons to the BBF/PONY Youth Baseball Championship, with a fine array of playing talent. Jim also coached the Scotland junior team who won the British Youth Championship in 1996. A season of unparalleled success deserves this award.

Manager of the Year - Keith Graham. Keith made 1996 the year Scottish baseball finally come of age. Through his team management he turned the Scotland squad into winners and was an ambassador for the team and his country.

PONY Sportsmanship Awards Winners

Michael Stead
Edinburgh Blue Jays

To quote his coach, Nick Clark..... Michael contributed greatly to the past season both on and off the field. These awards are aimed at children with outstanding integrity, dedication and enthusiasm and Michael personifies these qualities. Despite his being the quintessential team player, he has enjoyed considerable individual success.

Not only was Michael the clubs Most Valuable Player, he was selected to start for the Scottish Junior Team in all of their games, he attended the BBF Great Britain Cadet Camp and was selected for the team's squad, he led the Scottish Junior League in batting for the second year and was also its most prolific pitcher. However, he also found time to contribute away from the diamond, helping to coach new and younger players, staying behind to pack away equipment, working hard at fundraising and leading by example. Michael achieved all of this despite Michael would be the last person to brag about himself but if there is any justice he should be recognised for an exceptional year of giving to baseball.

Kelly Butler Bournemouth Bs

To quote club secretary Jan Macleod..... Kelly is 16 and has been with the club since 1993 when we held a summer school run by MLBI envoy Bob Brandi. Several girls attended but only Kelly came back to train with the "big boys" at the start of next season. Kelly became the club groupie and went to every senior game to show her support and learn more about the game. Last season we were able to form a proper youth team, much to Kelly's delight, and she was also able to sign up for the senior farm team. Playing with the seniors boosted her confidence no end and she took the mound for the juniors last summer and showed just how much she had learnt. In several senior games the opposing pitcher was frightened to pitch to her but she showed she was made of tougher stuff and hit away the same as the rest. At the end of last season Kelly organised an inter-club friendly, making all the necessary arrangements and along with another under 18 player captained and selected the line-ups. Kelly has now been voted onto the club social committee and is already a regular at Spring Training.

BUST UP!

(Devised by Will Cosgrave)

PUZZLE CORNER

An original game of skill and luck for 2, 3 or 4 bored baseball players. Game equipment: a pencil and a normal six-sided die. Duration: about 20 minutes.

Several baseball teams share a diamond and reschedule home games on the same date due to a mix up. It is only when they see each other approaching the field from different directions that they realise their error. Knowing that possession is nine-tenths the law, a mad rush ensues to claim the right to the field

RULES

1. Each player throws the die; highest thrower becomes SCORER and the ACES team. The players to his left (in order) the

- CUBS, JAYS, and METS.
 2. ACES plays first then others in order.
 3. Each player at his turn must name one of the letters on his side of the baseball field diagram below (example: ACES letters are a b c d e f). He then throws the die; the SCORER counts the same number of spaces across the field starting at the named letter and writes the initial of the team (A = ACES for example) in the square concerned. If a square is already occupied the throw is blocked and lost.
 4. Play ends when all 36 squares are occupied. SCORER adds up each team's score based on the printed values in the corner of the squares (the combined totals should add up to 74 points).
 5. The team with the highest score wins the right to stage their home game on the field. If scores are equal apply the tie breaker:
 (i) most 4 point square (daimond)
 (ii) most 3 point square (infield arc)
 (iii) most 2 point square (outfield)

If further games are played keep same teams; chance to play first and be SCORER moves to the left.

Yester-years Baseball gives our players of the past the opportunity to recount their playing days. The information will also prove valuable historical information on our sport.

Robert W A Feller

Rapid Robert, as he was known, pitched his first game for the American League Cleveland Indians, in 1936 at the tender age of 17. His career, all with the Indians, lasted until 1956, a total of 20 years less 2 years war service in the Navy. During his career, this Hall of Famer set up many records in the pitching field, one of which still stands today, that of the fastest pitch - 104 mph.

Hoping to avoid pitching to him, Feller and shortstop Lou Boudreau, tried a pickoff play at second which seemed to have worked as Boudreau tagged Masi and held his glove aloft - alas second base umpire Bill Stewart signalled safe - loud but fruitless protests ensued. After the commotion died down, Feller pitched to Holmes who promptly hit a little single over third base, scoring Masi, The Indians went scoreless in the top of the ninth, so lost the game 1 - 0. Bill Stewart admitted to Feller later that he "did not see the play and blew it". Feller did not pitch in the 1954 World Series and retired in 1956, the victim of one of the most controversial umpiring decisions in Series history.

In 1988, I was privileged to host Anne and Bob Feller for a two week private visit to London, during which many B B F personalities of the day

Bob says "I would have liked to win a World Series game", but when the chance came in the 1948 World Series against the Boston Braves, he was thwarted by a controversial umpiring call. It was a nil nil ball game, with Boston at bat in the bottom of the eighth, there were two outs with runners Sibby Sists on first and Phil Masi on second, at bat was Tommy Holmes the National Leagues number three batter.

a two week private visit to London, during which many B B F personalities of the day and a few selected ball players met and talked with Bob.

It was shortly after Bob's return to the States that the Old Timers were founded and, at my request, Bob agreed to be our Honorary Life President.

Since his retirement from the active list in 1956, Bob has constantly been an ambassador for both the Cleveland Indians and Baseball in general, travelling extensively within as well as outside the States, spreading the word of our great game.

On the 10th June 1995, Bob and his family attended the opening of a Museum in his honour. The Governor of Iowa officially opened the Bob Feller Museum, in Van Meter, Iowa, Bob's birthplace in the year 1919.

Bob Feller was my adopted hero, when I first broke into baseball with the Mitcham Royals of the Western League, in Surrey, in 1951. At that time American Mags were almost non-existent, save second hand ones in a book shop. The first mag I ever got was a Saturday Evening Post, which just happened to sport an article on Bob Feller and, as I wanted to be a pitcher, he became my hero. Little did I know then, that thirty seven years later, I would be hosting him in my own home

AMERICAN BASEBALL COACHES CONVENTION

The BBF recently sent several of it's coaching staff to the above convention which was held in Dallas at the start of January. Barry Marshall, Nigel Moss, Frank Parker, Ralph Rago, Gary Roberts and Ian Smyth were accompanied by BBF president Steve Herbert.

The convention consisted of a series of clinics given by some of the top names in college and professional baseball, including Rafael Palmiero of the Baltimore Orioles, Terry Collins of the California Angels, Ron Polk of Mississippi State University and Tom House.

Alongside the clinics was an exhibition by practically every baseball equipment supplier and manufacturer you could think of, and many you would never dream of.

Also there were several meetings with PONY Baseball, MLB and various other bodies and organisations. At the beginning of the convention there was an International Coaches Reception. Many countries outside of the US were represented, however it was remarkable how many delegates from Great Britain were represented. This showing was impressive, bringing congratulations from various people.

Without doubt all in attendance greatly benefited from this experience. This will undoubtedly improve their coaching knowledge, and enable them to share this experience and knowledge with the players and coaches whom they teach.

All the delegates intend to share this knowledge with the membership, via a special edition of Coaching Digest, where they will produce various articles and papers outlining the topics and discussions they attended.

The whole project was made possible by grants from various bodies including the National Coaching Foundation, The Sports Aid Foundation, and the Torch Trophy Trust, as well as contributions made by the coaches themselves.

Dear BBF

I would like to place on record my sincere thanks to the BBF for an excellent weekend at the umpires' clinic at Cranfield University.

It is only now whilst I am going through my notes that I realise how much knowledge and insight I have gained into the art of the baseball umpire.

Above all, I feel that I will now be far more confident in running a game on my own - a situation which, despite everyone's best efforts, still occurs far too often.

I was pleased to see so many umpires there. Perhaps there is a change for the better in getting people to realise that umpiring is our way of contributing to the great game of baseball.

Thanks again, and every good wish for the forthcoming season.

Yours sincerely
Kenny Reeves

BBF / MLBI 1997 ENVOY PROGRAMME

The purpose of the Envoy Programme is to provide the CEB Federations with continuous instruction in baseball fundamentals, to players and coaches of all ages and levels.

This summer MLBI are sending six envoys to Great Britain. They will arrive in June, and stay in Great Britain for approximately 8 weeks. All the envoys are experienced college coaches in the US, and many have also coached in Great Britain previously.

People in the UK don't dislike baseball, they are just unfamiliar with it. In time, this country will have a rich tradition in this sport. Keep up the good work.

Vince Gardia,
MLBI Envoy 1996

The Envoy instructors' time and efforts will focus mainly on our youth and schools programmes, helping existing BBF clubs to grow their junior membership. They will bring to your club many benefits:

- * Develop your junior programme
- * Players receive expert coaching
- * Develop baseball in your local schools
- * Enhance your own coaching skills

The coaches can be expected to work five or six days per week, a minimum of four and maximum of eight hours per day. The majority of their time should be spent on the field in practice or clinic situations.

As an envoy host your responsibilities will be:

- To provide housing and food for the envoy, whether this is in your own home or a local hotel.

The envoy coach must have available his own bedroom, with an adequate supply of linens, blankets and hot water. Three meals per day must be provided, which meet the requirements of the coaches themselves.

- To provide transport to and from his airport of arrival / departure, as well as all local transportation.
- To arrange coaching sessions with local teams and schools for the duration of his stay. You will also need to supply a certain amount of baseball equipment for the envoy to use during his visits to schools etc, where equipment is not available.

So, if you like the sound of the above, and think that the envoy coach will be invaluable to your club this summer, then you need to send in an application to BBF Head Office giving the following details. Envoys will be allocated on a first come first served basis in blocks of a maximum of 4 weeks.

- ◆ Your name, address and telephone number
- ◆ The names of your senior and junior teams

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL
INTERNATIONAL

- ◆ An outline of the programme you intend to use for the envoy for the duration of his stay, and how you intend to publicise this.
- ◆ A brief summary of why your area will benefit from the envoy's expertise.

Applications should be sent in by 31 March 1997.

From our formation in 1993 to National Youth finalists in 1995 and semi-finalists in 1996 owes a great deal to the expert coaching received by both our coaches and junior players.

Our envoys Ted Novio and Tom Mendoza have put Hessle firmly on the baseball map.
